Patent Trial and Appeal Board

Update to AIA trial proceedings

Today, the Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB) issued a memorandum concerning final written decision procedures for America Invents Act (AIA) trial proceedings. The new procedure requires Board panels to address all grounds raised in the petition in their final written decisions. This approach is designed to promote compact decision making. The memorandum applies to all proceedings where an oral hearing has not yet occurred. The new procedure does not impact institution decisions.
